How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

Mackenzie has rated the volatility of this fund as medium.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What are the Risks of Investing in the Fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan, or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell H5 Series securities of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

We provide eligible investors with combined management and administration fee decreases on their eligible Mackenzie fund investments, as disclosed under the sub-heading “Fund expenses”. Effective August 2018, we will automatically switch your H5 Series securities into HW5 Series securities of the Fund (bearing lower combined management and administration fees) upon your investment amount in eligible Mackenzie funds meeting the HW5 Series eligibility requirements of $100,000 minimum series investment and $500,000 minimum total holdings. If you or your eligible accounts, as applicable, no longer meet the requirements to be eligible for HW5 Series, we may automatically switch your securities into H5 Series, which has higher combined management and administration fees than HW5 Series. See “Fees and Expenses” in the Fund’s simplified prospectus and speak to your representative for additional details.
