Before you invest in any fund, consider how the fund would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

Notice: A meeting of Fund investors will be held on or about July 24, 2019 to consider and approve proposed changes to the investment objectives of the Fund. The proposed changes would allow the Fund to invest primarily in shares of companies operating anywhere in the world in the energy and natural resources industries. If all approvals are obtained, the changes will be effective on or about August 16, 2019.

Effective October 1, 2018, Mackenzie Canadian Resource Fund was closed to any new investment, except that investors that held securities of this Fund as of this date, and continue to hold these securities, are permitted to make additional purchases.

How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

Mackenzie has rated the volatility of this fund as high.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What are the Risks of Investing in the Fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how QFW Series securities of the fund have performed since inception. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce returns.

Year-by-year returns

No performance is available because securities have not been distributed for a full calendar year.

Best and worst 3-month returns

No performance is available because securities have not been distributed for a full calendar year.

Average return

This information cannot be presented since QFW Series of the fund is less than 12 months old as of February 28, 2019.

Who is this fund for?

Investors who:

- are looking for a Canadian precious metals sector fund to hold as part of their portfolio
- want a long-term investment
- can handle the volatility of stock and commodity markets

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan, or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell QFW Series securities of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

We provide eligible investors with combined management and administration fee decreases on their eligible Mackenzie fund investments, as disclosed under the sub-heading “Fund expenses”. If you or your eligible accounts, as applicable, no longer meet the requirements to be eligible for QFW Series, we may automatically switch your securities into QF Series, which has higher combined management and administration fees than QFW Series. See “Fees and Expenses” in the Fund’s simplified prospectus and speak to your representative for additional details.

1. Sales charges

You can only buy this series of the fund under the no load purchase option. No sales charges are payable by you under this purchase option.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns.

As of September 30, 2018, the fund's expenses were 1.25% of its value. This equals $12.50 for every $1,000 invested.

More about the trailing commission

No trailing commission.

	Annual rate (as a % of the fund's value)
Management expense ratio (MER) This is the total of the management fee (including the trailing commission) and operating expenses (including fixed administration fees)	1.06%
Trading expense ratio These are the fund's trading costs	0.19%
Fund expenses	1.25%

The fee decrease from QF Series to QFW Series is 0.36%.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch securities of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Switch fees	If you switch between series of the Fund or to another fund within the Quadrus Group of Funds, then you may pay your representative's firm a switch fee of 0-2%, subject to the following exception – no switch fees are payable when switching between QF Series, QF5 Series, QFW Series and QFW5 Series securities.
Inappropriate short-term trading fee	A fee of 2% of the amount switched or redeemed will be charged by the Fund for inappropriate short-term trading.
Excessive short-term trading fee	A fee of 1% of the amount switched or redeemed will be charged by the Fund if you invest in the fund for less than 30 days and your trading is part of a pattern of short-term trading that Mackenzie believes is detrimental to fund investors.
Advisor Service Fee	You may pay a service fee, which is negotiable with your investment representative and your representative's firm, for services provided in connection with your QFW Series investments. This service fee may not exceed 1.25% and will be collected by Mackenzie through redemptions of these securities in your account and then the proceeds will be remitted to your representative's firm.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund securities within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form, Fund Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
